2015 VINTAGE

“There is reasonably good Chablis character on the notably ripe but not really exotic aromas of mostly white orchard fruit that is laced with notes of sea breeze and algae. While the medium-bodied flavors are certainly rich they possess an appealingly sleek mouth feel while coating the palate with sap on the lingering and lightly stony finale. This too should drink well almost upon release. “

2014 VINTAGE

Score: 15.5/20 – Guide des Vins Bettane+Desseauve 2017

" A deft but not invisible application of wood sets off an expressive nose that would also be difficult to mistake as anything other than Chablis with its pretty array of algae, tidal pool and iodine-inflected aromas. As one would reasonably expect there is better volume, richness and mid-palate concentration to the delicious, mouth coating and well-balanced finale. If this can develop more depth with bottle age my score may appear unduly conservative. 2019+"

2013 VINTAGE

Score: 92/100 - Preview - Wine Enthusiast August issue 2016

"Stony citrus. A light chalky texture, generally lightish overall but nothing lacking if a little dilute on the finish. Drink 2015-2018»

Score : 16/20 - Julia Harding

"Mostly from L'Homme Mort with some Vaulorent and Vaupoulent. Here the expressive nose is slightly riper, indeed to the point that there are exotic fruit notes present on the aromas that offer enough Chablis character to be convincing. There is fine richness and volume to the lightly mineral-inflected medium-bodied flavors that terminate in a lingering, clean and dry finish. This is a wine of contrasts as the mid-palate is almost lush yet the finale is precise.2018+."

2012 VINTAGE

"This is at once more complex and offers a bit more Chablis character as well with its refined nose of citrus, pear, algae and soft wood nuances. The seductively textured flavors offer more minerality as well along a saline element on the dry, punchy and refreshing finish. This should drink well young but offer 4 to 6 years of development potential too if desired."

2011 VINTAGE

"An amazing and powerful wine complex with spicy notes, hence it loses some of its typical character. A few years of cellaring are absolutely necessary to help him tame the vanilla."

Score : 16,5/20 Vinum – Sep. 2013

"Here too there are notes of oyster shell but then the aromatic profile changes to one of citrus, algae and stone. There is good richness to the energetic, well-detailed and mineral inflected flavors that possess an interesting contrast between the relatively creamy mid-palate and a crisp finish. 2015+"

Score: 89/100 Burghound - Jun. 2013

2010 VINTAGE

"Toasty oak on the nose and palate. Elegant, crisp, round fruit and textured palate. It has a lovely mineral finish. Long and concentrated with a steely minerality.
