VINTAGE 2015

Score: 16/20 – Jancis Robinson – Dec. 2016

“This is presently quite firmly reduced and it should benefit materially from a thorough aeration. Otherwise there is excellent intensity to the refined yet notably powerful middle weight flavors that possess outstanding mid-palate concentration while managing to deliver first-rate length with grace and balance. In a word, lovely.”

Score: 92/100 – Burghound – Jun. 2017

“This has a lovely chalky note at first, giving away to grapefruit and just a hint of that clementine aroma I get on fresher-styled Meursault. Spice from the oak too. Complex in a restrained way. Doesn’t have a lot of stuffing – or perhaps I mean drive- but they have still achieved balance here. Not terribly long. »
